

Mr. Everyman

Mr. Everyman, come on let's join hands (C, F, C, G7, C, C, Emin)
Will you let your sons, fight in Vietnam, (same.....G7)
While those Southern whites beat and kill our brethren (repeats first line melody/chords)
It's not too late to take your place, (C, Emin,)
And stand against all men who hate, (Dmin, Emin),
Let's turn this nation's ugly face, (C, Emin)
To one of brotherhood. (Emin, Dmin, G, C)

Chorus: (different melody)

Join my song, as we walk along,
In time my friend, we'll meet the gathered throng
Bring your friends if they be,
Children who seek to be free.

Bombs are falling now, all around the world
Men with stars and stripes, wave their flags unfurled
Kill the Reds they yell, don't they know for whom the bell
It's time for you to join our numbers,
Do not seek to hide in slumber
Dying screams of men
Cannot be blotted from your ears.

Repeat Chorus.....

Neighbor stand by me, It's so lonely to be free,
Can't you hear, the martyred men through history,
What's the use denying, we still have to do some dying,
Evers, Chaney, Reeves and Schwerner,
Died too young but there'll be younger,
Millions more will fall asunder,
For all men are free.

Repeat Chorus
